Jim Branch works in our local bank. I've known him for years. We went to school together. But I never felt I could come right out and ask him why he never goes to church. One night when we both happened to get into a confidential frame of mind, the words came easier

He told me that - of all things - it was because he hated this business of passing the plate for money. He said he saw enough money at the bank all week without seeing it worshipped on Sun-

I admit this shocked me. That's why I told him, frankly, that I thought he'd completely missed the point. I told him our minister once said that it gives him a good feeling when he receives the collection; not because this is money but because the people are giving the fruit of their own efforts to vest. Today, it's dollars and cents. But the motive is still the same, and it's a good motive. I saw Jim at the morning service a couple of weeks ago, and something tells me that it won't
